

More than 90% of all Social Security recipients do not maximize their benefits because they are not aware of their options. There is a demand for help and guidance when faced with making decisions about Social Security.

Many advisors know very little about Social Security and are not able to properly advise their clients. The NSSA® Certificate Program is designed to help you become confident that you have the knowledge and education to be a valuable resource for your clients who are dealing with Social Security.

Gain the knowledge you need to open doors to 76 million baby boomers.

"I have been able to better take care of my clients and suggest some different options for them. This course has been a huge benefit. I expanded my knowledge and became a better CPA for my clients."

—B. Schmidt

The NSSA® Certificate Program is geared for professionals who advise clients or employees on retirement planning and Social Security benefits, including:

- Financial planners and advisors
- Certified public accountants (CPAs)
- Insurance agents, tax preparers
- Attorneys
- Human resource professionals

"It's been a pleasure having you assist me in my understanding of all things Social Security. My clients were very appreciative to have you come and speak to them. I very much like the fact that you have ongoing webinars and 'in-person' training available for advisors."

—C. McIntire

Ongoing support for Certificate holders is provided by Premier Social Security Consulting, LLC, and available on a 24/7/365 basis including unlimited questions and monthly webinars.

The NSSA® Certificate Program offers flexibility, allowing you to complete the instructor-led portion in one of three ways:

- Attend a live, face-to-face, one-day class
- Log-in from any location to virtually participate in a one-day web-based class
- Complete on-demand, video-based lectures from NSSA® instructors on your schedule

Live classes qualify for 8 continuing education credits for CPAs and CFPs nationwide and insurance agents nationwide. Other professional bodies may also accept NSSA® credits. The web-based and on-demand versions of the course do not qualify for continuing education credits.

Group NSSA® classes for corporations, associations, and other groups are available. Call for details.
